

DISFIGUREMENT

Meaning: Disfigurement refers to a permanent alteration or deformity of a person's physical appearance, often resulting from injury or illness.

1. The accident left her with a disfigurement that took years to accept.
2. He was determined to overcome the disfigurement that had haunted him since childhood.
3. The artist portrayed the theme of beauty and disfigurement in a thought-provoking way.
4. Despite his disfigurement, he radiated confidence and charisma.
5. The film addressed issues of disfigurement and societal acceptance in a sensitive manner.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disfigurement>