

DISFORESTATION

Meaning: Disforestation is the process of removing or clearing forests, particularly on a large scale, leading to ecological and environmental consequences.

1. The rapid disforestation of the Amazon rainforest has raised alarms among environmentalists worldwide.
2. Disforestation not only threatens countless species but also disrupts the global climate balance.
3. Conservation efforts are crucial to combat the disforestation that is occurring at an alarming rate.
4. The government implemented strict regulations to address the increasing disforestation in rural areas.
5. Awareness campaigns highlight the severe impacts of disforestation on local communities and wildlife.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disforestation>