

DISFURNISHMENT

Meaning: Disfurnishment refers to the act of removing furniture and furnishings from a space, resulting in an emptiness or lack of warmth.

1. The disfurnishment of the old house left it feeling cold and unwelcoming.
2. After the disfurnishment, the once cozy living room became a stark and empty space.
3. The disfurnishment process revealed the beautiful hardwood floors that had been hidden for years.
4. With each piece of furniture removed, the disfurnishment transformed the atmosphere of the room entirely.
5. Her memories of the disfurnishment lingered, reminding her of the life that once filled the space.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disfurnishment>