

DISGARRISON

Meaning: Disgarrison (verb): to remove troops from a fortified place or military post.

1. The general was ordered to disgarrison the troops from the besieged city.
2. After months of conflict, the decision was made to disgarrison the soldiers and seek a peaceful resolution.
3. The commander announced the plan to disgarrison their position at dawn, much to the relief of the weary soldiers.
4. As tensions eased, the military strategists discussed how best to disgarrison the area without losing control.
5. The government faced criticism for its failure to properly consult with local leaders before deciding to disgarrison the base.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disgarrison>