DISGRUNTLE

Meaning: Disgruntle: to make someone dissatisfied or unhappy.

1. The employees were disgruntled after the announcement of the recent layoffs.
2. His constant criticism seemed to disgruntle the whole team during the meeting.
3. She became increasingly disgruntled with the lack of communication from management.
4. The changes to the policy disgruntled many long-time customers who felt overlooked.
5. Feeling disgruntled, he decided to voice his concerns to the leadership team.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disgruntle