

DISGUISER

Meaning: DISGUISER: a person or thing that conceals or alters one's appearance to assume a different identity.

1. The magician was an expert disguider, transforming into various characters throughout the show.
2. In the movie, the disguider used clever makeup and costumes to evade capture.
3. She felt like a disguider at the masquerade ball, hiding her true identity behind an elaborate mask.
4. The detective suspected that the disguider was involved in the heist, using their skills to remain unseen.
5. With a little creativity, he became a master disguider, slipping into different roles with ease.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disguiser>