

DISGUST

Meaning: Disgust is a strong feeling of revulsion or profound disapproval aroused by something unpleasant or offensive.

1. The sight of the spoiled food filled her with disgust.
2. He expressed his disgust at the unfair treatment of the animals.
3. Her face reflected pure disgust when she heard his offensive comments.
4. The film's graphic scenes elicited a strong sense of disgust from the audience.
5. It was hard to hide her disgust when she saw the state of the restroom.
6. The foul smell from the garbage filled her with disgust.
7. He could barely hide his disgust at the sight of the ruined meal.
8. Her reaction of disgust was evident when she saw the dirty kitchen.
9. The politician's lies sparked a wave of disgust among the voters.
10. It was hard to mask his disgust when he heard the offensive remark.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disgust>