

DISHABITED

Meaning: Dishabited: no longer inhabited or occupied; deserted.

1. The once vibrant neighborhood now stood dishabited, with empty houses and overgrown gardens.
2. After years of neglect, the dishabited mansion became a haunting reminder of its former glory.
3. As we wandered through the dishabited streets, the echoes of laughter from the past seemed to linger.
4. The artist found inspiration in the dishabited landscape, capturing its eerie beauty on canvas.
5. They decided to renovate the dishabited building, hoping to breathe new life into the forgotten space.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dishabited>