

DISHEARTEN

Meaning: Dishearten means to cause someone to lose confidence, hope, or enthusiasm.

1. The constant criticism from her peers began to dishearten her, making it difficult to find motivation.
2. After losing the championship game, the team felt disheartened but vowed to come back stronger next season.
3. His disheartening news about the project's cancellation left everyone in the office feeling defeated.
4. Seeing the lack of support from the community was enough to dishearten even the most passionate volunteers.
5. Despite the disheartening setbacks, she remained determined to pursue her dreams with unwavering resolve.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dishearten>