

DISHEARTENMENT

Meaning: Disheartenment is a feeling of loss of confidence or enthusiasm, often due to disappointment or setbacks.

1. The team's disheartenment after the unexpected defeat was palpable in the locker room.
2. She felt a deep sense of disheartenment when her efforts went unrecognized at work.
3. His constant criticism led to a gradual disheartenment that affected her confidence.
4. The disheartenment among the community was evident after the funding was cut for the local project.
5. Despite the disheartenment that followed his failure, he resolved to try again with renewed determination.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disheartenment>