

DISHEVELE

Meaning: To dishevel means to make untidy or messy, particularly in reference to hair or clothing.

1. The wind began to dishevel her carefully styled hair as she walked along the beach.
2. He always seemed to dishevel his clothes after a long day at work, leaving them crumpled and unkempt.
3. The children ran through the house, their laughter echoing as they disheveled the neatly arranged living room.
4. After the storm, the once orderly garden was left disheveled, with branches and leaves scattered everywhere.
5. She didn't mind the disheveled look; it was a sign of a day well spent in creative chaos.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dishevele>