

DISHFUL

Meaning: DISHFUL (adjective): containing or filled with food served in a dish.

1. The chef presented a dishful of vibrant vegetables, enticing everyone at the table.
2. With a dishful of steaming pasta, she felt a sense of accomplishment after a long day.
3. He served a dishful of his grandmother's famous stew, filling the room with comforting aromas.
4. The elegant restaurant offered a dishful of desserts that tempted even the most disciplined diners.
5. After the feast, there was only a dishful of crumbs left, a testament to the guests' enjoyment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dishful>