

DISHONORARY

Meaning: Dishonorary refers to something that is associated with disgrace or a loss of honor, typically in relation to actions or titles that negatively impact one's reputation.

1. His actions were deemed dishonorary, leading to a swift fall from grace within the community.
2. The dishonorary title was a stain on her reputation, overshadowing her many achievements.
3. After the scandal, he was stripped of his dishonorary role and faced public backlash.
4. She fought hard to regain her standing, determined to overcome the dishonorary label placed upon her.
5. The committee decided to revoke the dishonorary award, citing a breach of ethics as the reason.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dishonorary>