

DISHWATER

Meaning: Dishwater refers to the dirty water used for washing dishes, often containing food residues and soap.

1. The smell of dishwater lingered in the kitchen long after the meal was over.
2. She plunged her hands into the warm dishwater, scrubbing away the remnants of dinner.
3. After a long day, he found comfort in the simple act of washing dishes in soapy dishwater.
4. The dishwater was so murky that she could barely see the bottom of the sink.
5. It was hard to believe that the sparkling plates had once been submerged in greasy dishwater.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dishwater>