

DISIMPARK

Meaning: Disimpark (verb): To remove or limit parking spaces in an area to enhance accessibility for pedestrians and public use.

1. The city council has decided to disimpark several areas to improve public access.
2. We need to find a way to disimpark the parking lot to accommodate more pedestrians.
3. As the festival approached, organizers planned to disimpark the streets for safety and enjoyment.
4. Community members voiced their concerns about the decision to disimpark local spaces without proper notice.
5. To enhance the neighborhood's appeal, the mayor proposed to disimpark a section of the downtown area.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disimpark>