DISINCLINATION

Meaning: Disinclination refers to a reluctance or unwillingness to engage in a particular activity or pursue a specific interest.

1. Her disinclination to participate in group activities often left her feeling isolated.
2. Despite his natural talent, there was a noticeable disinclination to pursue a career in music.
3. The team's disinclination to accept criticism hindered their progress on the project.
4. She expressed her disinclination to take on additional responsibilities at work.
5. His disinclination for public speaking made him anxious during presentations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disinclination