

DISINCLOSE

Meaning: Disclose or reveal information that was previously kept confidential or secret.

1. The committee decided to disinclose the confidential information after the investigation concluded.
2. She felt compelled to disinclose the details of the agreement to her legal advisor.
3. In an effort to be transparent, the organization chose to disinclose previous financial records.
4. The journalist was criticized for attempting to disinclose sensitive sources without their consent.
5. During the meeting, they agreed to disinclose certain facts that were previously withheld from the public.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disinclose>