

DISINFLAME

Meaning: Disinflamm: to reduce or alleviate hostility, tension, or strong emotions in a situation or among individuals.

1. Efforts to disinfluence the public's perception of the incident proved challenging.
2. The mediator's role was to disinflame tensions between the two parties during negotiations.
3. To disinflame the heated debate, she introduced a series of constructive suggestions.
4. His calm demeanor helped to disinflame the volatile situation at the meeting.
5. The counselor worked diligently to disinflame the misunderstandings that had arisen among the group.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disinflame>