

DISINHERIT

Meaning: To disinherit means to deprive someone, especially a family member, of their right to inherit property or assets through a will or legal means.

1. The decision to disinherit his son shocked the entire family.
2. Many people believe that a will can disinherit a child only under specific circumstances.
3. She felt betrayed when her father chose to disinherit her in favor of her step-siblings.
4. Disinheriting a loved one can lead to long-lasting rifts and resentment within a family.
5. The lawyer explained the legal implications of attempting to disinherit someone without proper documentation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disinherit>