

DISINSURE

Meaning: To disinsure means to terminate or cancel an insurance policy, thereby removing coverage from a property or individual.

1. The company decided to disinsure the property due to the increased risk of flooding.
2. After reviewing the claims, the insurer chose to disinsure several high-risk clients.
3. It can be financially detrimental to disinsure a valuable asset without proper consideration.
4. Many policyholders were shocked to learn that their providers would disinsure them without warning.
5. The new regulations prompted several insurers to disinsure properties that did not meet safety standards.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disinsure>