

DISINTER

Meaning: Disinter: to remove something, especially a body or artifacts, from the place where it has been buried or hidden.

1. The archaeologists planned to disinter the ancient artifacts buried beneath the temple ruins.
2. After years of waiting, the family decided to disinter their ancestors' remains for a proper burial ceremony.
3. Local authorities had to disinter the time capsule to assess its condition after decades underground.
4. She felt a sense of unease as they prepared to disinter the remains from the old cemetery.
5. The documentary aimed to disinter forgotten stories of the town's early settlers through interviews and research.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disinter>