

DISINTERESTED

Meaning: Disinterested means impartial or unbiased, lacking personal interest or involvement in a matter.

1. The judge remained disinterested throughout the proceedings, ensuring a fair trial.
2. Her disinterested perspective on the heated debate helped to calm tensions in the room.
3. Despite the controversy, he maintained a disinterested attitude, focusing solely on the facts.
4. The disinterested researchers conducted the study without any bias or external influence.
5. In a disinterested manner, she offered advice that benefited both parties involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disinterested>