

DISINVESTITURE

Meaning: Disinvestiture refers to the process of selling or divesting assets or investments, particularly those that are underperforming or no longer align with a strategic focus.

1. The company's disinvestment strategy included a significant disinvestiture of its underperforming assets.
2. After years of profitable operations, the board decided that disinvestiture was necessary to focus on core business areas.
3. The disinvestiture of government assets often leads to public debate about privatization and its implications.
4. She studied the effects of disinvestiture on local economies, noting both benefits and drawbacks.
5. The disinvestiture of the subsidiary allowed the parent company to streamline its operations and reduce debt.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disinvestiture>