

DISJECTION

Meaning: Disjection: the act of analyzing or dissecting a text or argument to expose inconsistencies or clarify issues.

1. The disjection of the manuscript revealed several inconsistencies in the author's argument.
2. In the debate, the disjection of opposing viewpoints helped clarify the central issues at hand.
3. Her disjection of the poem highlighted its underlying themes and intricate wordplay.
4. The scientist's disjection of the complex data set was crucial for understanding the broader implications of the research.
5. During the workshop, participants engaged in a thorough disjection of the case studies presented.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disjection>