

DISJUDICATION

Meaning: Disjudication refers to the process of rendering a decision or judgment in a legal matter, often resulting in ambiguity or misunderstanding among the parties involved.

1. Disjudication in the legal context often leads to confusion among the parties involved.
2. The concept of disjudication can be difficult to grasp for those unfamiliar with legal terminology.
3. In some cases, disjudication may result from a lack of jurisdiction or improper procedures.
4. The court's decision to invoke disjudication left many wondering about the implications for future cases.
5. Understanding disjudication is crucial for law students as they prepare for their careers in the legal field.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disjudication>