

DISJUNCTIVE

Meaning: Disjunctive refers to a characteristic of presenting alternatives or choices, often creating separation or distinction between different ideas or elements.

1. The disjunctive nature of her arguments made it difficult to find common ground.
2. In logic, a disjunctive statement includes multiple alternatives, connected by "or."
3. The disjunctive approach in the essay highlighted the contrasting perspectives on the issue.
4. During the debate, he used a disjunctive reasoning style that confused his opponents.
5. Her presentation employed disjunctive clauses to emphasize the choices available to the audience.
6. The disjunctive nature of her argument made it difficult to follow her main point.
7. In logic, disjunctive statements are often used to present alternatives or choices.
8. The essay's disjunctive style allowed for multiple interpretations of the central theme.
9. He used a disjunctive approach in his presentation to emphasize contrasts between the two theories.
10. Disjunctive words like "either" and "or" signal choices in a sentence structure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disjunctive>