

DISLEAVE

Meaning: DISLEAVE (verb): To lose or shed leaves, typically as a result of seasonal changes or environmental conditions.

1. The sudden storm caused the trees to disleave, leaving the ground covered in a carpet of green.
2. As autumn approached, the deciduous trees began to disleave, signaling the change of seasons.
3. After the harsh winds swept through the forest, the branches were disleaved, revealing their stark outlines against the sky.
4. In her artwork, she captured the beauty of nature as it began to disleave, emphasizing the transition from lushness to barrenness.
5. The gardener remarked on how the heavy rains caused the plants to disleave earlier than usual this year.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disleave>