

DISLIKENESS

Meaning: Dislikeness refers to a strong feeling of aversion or dislike towards something or someone.

1. His dislikeness for spicy food was well-known among his friends.
2. The dislikeness they felt towards the new policy sparked a heated debate.
3. Despite her dislikeness for crowded places, she attended the concert with enthusiasm.
4. Their dislikeness for small talk often led to deeper, more meaningful conversations.
5. She struggled to understand the dislikeness he had for his former colleagues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dislikeness>