

DISLIVE

Meaning: DISLIVE (verb): To disrupt or diminish one's sense of peace, tranquility, or contentment.

1. The constant noise from the construction site began to dislive my sense of peace.
2. She felt that the city's fast pace dislived her desire for a quiet and simple life.
3. After moving to the countryside, he realized that urban stress had dislived his appreciation for nature.
4. Their cramped living conditions seemed to dislive any hope of a harmonious family life.
5. The loss of community can often dislive one's motivation to engage with the world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dislive>