

DISMISSION

Meaning: Dismission refers to the act of officially terminating or dismissing something, such as a project or policy.

1. The dismission of the project was met with mixed reactions from the team.
2. After careful consideration, the board announced the dismission of the outdated policy.
3. His dismission from the company came as a surprise to many of his colleagues.
4. The dismission of the case left the community in shock and dismay.
5. She felt a sense of relief following her dismission from the demanding role.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dissmission>