

DISNATURALIZE

Meaning: DISNATURALIZE: To challenge or undermine the inherent or natural qualities attributed to a concept, thereby revealing its constructed or artificial aspects.

1. The documentary aimed to disnaturalize the romanticized view of wilderness by showcasing its harsh realities.
2. In her research, she sought to disnaturalize the assumptions people have about gender roles in society.
3. His artwork intended to disnaturalize everyday objects, transforming them into thought-provoking pieces.
4. The philosopher argued that we must disnaturalize our understanding of morality to truly grasp its complexities.
5. By using satire, the writer attempted to disnaturalize the conventional narratives surrounding fame and success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disnaturalize>