

DISOBLIGATION

Meaning: Disobligation refers to the state of being free from an obligation or duty to attend or participate in something.

1. His disobligation to attend the meeting was noted by his colleagues.
2. Feeling a sense of disobligation, she chose to skip the family gathering.
3. The contract contained a clause that allowed for disobligation under certain circumstances.
4. Despite her disobligation to fulfill the promise, she still felt guilty about it.
5. He faced criticism for his disobligation to the commitments he had made.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disobligation>