

DISORB

Meaning: DISORB (verb): To rearrange or reorganize data or processes to simplify analysis or improve efficiency.

1. The new software update is designed to disorb the complex data sets for easier analysis.
2. In an attempt to improve efficiency, the team decided to disorb the workflow processes.
3. The artist's use of color seemed to disorb the viewer's perception of depth in the painting.
4. To tackle the problem effectively, we need to disorb the various elements contributing to the chaos.
5. As the storm approached, the wind began to disorb the leaves from the trees, creating a swirling dance in the air.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disorb>