

DISORDINATION

Meaning: Disordination refers to a state of disarray or lack of organization that impairs clarity or functionality.

1. The disordination in the room made it difficult to find anything I needed.
2. Her disordination during the presentation raised concerns among her colleagues.
3. After the earthquake, the disordination of the city's infrastructure was evident.
4. The artist's work reflects a sense of disordination that challenges traditional aesthetics.
5. In the midst of disordination, he found a surprising clarity in his thoughts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disordination>