

DISPACE

Meaning: Displace: to force (someone or something) to move from its usual or original position or place.

1. The sudden influx of new residents began to displace the long-standing community.
2. As climate change worsens, more species are at risk of being displaced from their natural habitats.
3. The construction of the new highway will displace several families who have lived in the area for generations.
4. Economic developments often displace traditional industries, leading to job losses in local towns.
5. Efforts to preserve the wetlands are crucial to prevent the wildlife from being displaced by urban expansion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispace>