

DISPARK

Meaning: DISPARK (verb): To become agitated or startled, often resulting in a sudden release of energy or tension.

1. The sudden loud noise caused the dog to dispark in fright.
2. After a long day at work, he needed to dispark his mind and relax.
3. They decided to dispark their plans for the weekend due to bad weather.
4. The unexpected announcement seemed to dispark the excitement in the crowd.
5. Finding a quiet place helped her to dispark her thoughts and focus.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispark>