

DISPEED

Meaning: Dispeed (verb): to cause a sudden decrease in speed or activity; to slow down or diminish abruptly.

1. The sudden dispeed of the train left passengers in shock.
2. As the storm approached, we noticed a dispeed in the once bustling crowd.
3. She felt a dispeed in the conversation, sensing the tension in the room.
4. The dispeed of the car's engine was alarming, prompting the driver to pull over.
5. With each passing moment, the dispeed of her excitement became evident.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispeed>