

DISPEND

Meaning: To dispend means to distribute or spend money or resources for a specific purpose.

1. The committee decided to dispend the funds allocated for the community project.
2. In order to improve the infrastructure, the city will need to dispend a significant amount of money.
3. She felt it was her responsibility to dispend her time wisely, focusing on meaningful tasks.
4. The organization aims to dispend resources effectively to maximize their impact on local charities.
5. To achieve their goals, the team had to dispend energy and creativity into every aspect of the campaign.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispense>