DISPENSATIVELY

Meaning: Dispensatively: in a manner that allows for flexibility or leniency, particularly in the application of rules or judgments.

1. The judge ruled dispensively, allowing the defendant to present additional evidence.
2. In her lecture, she explained the concept of justice dispensively to ensure everyone understood.
3. He approached the task dispensively, considering each option carefully before making a decision.
4. The committee acted dispensively, granting exceptions to the usual rules for special cases.
5. They reviewed the proposal dispensively, weighing the pros and cons before reaching a conclusion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispensatively