

DISPIRITED

Meaning: DISPIRITED: feeling a loss of enthusiasm or morale; disheartened.

1. The team's dispirited attitude was evident after their fourth consecutive loss.
2. She felt dispirited by the constant criticism from her peers.
3. Despite his dispirited demeanor, he managed to put on a brave face for his family.
4. The long, dreary winter left many residents feeling dispirited and yearning for spring.
5. After hearing the disappointing news, a dispirited silence fell over the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dspirited>