

DISPITEOUS

Meaning: Dispituous: characterized by a contentious or argumentative disposition, often leading to conflict or disagreement.

1. The dispituous nature of their argument made it difficult for anyone to reach a consensus.
2. She had a dispituous attitude that often led to heated debates among her friends.
3. In a dispituous society, differing opinions are not only tolerated but celebrated.
4. His dispituous remarks during the meeting sparked a lively discussion among the team members.
5. The dispituous exchange of ideas in the classroom encouraged critical thinking and engagement.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispituous>