

DISPLACE

Meaning: Displace: to force (someone or something) to move from its usual or original position or place.

1. The construction of the new highway will displace several families from their homes.
2. Advancements in technology often displace traditional jobs, causing significant shifts in the labor market.
3. The rising sea levels may displace millions of people living in coastal areas.
4. In an effort to improve the environment, the company plans to displace plastic packaging with biodegradable materials.
5. Changes in climate patterns can displace wildlife, forcing them to adapt to new habitats.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/displace>