

DISPLACENCY

Meaning: Displacency refers to a state of discomfort or unease experienced when adapting to a new environment or situation.

1. Displacency can often lead to feelings of unease and disconnection in a new environment.
2. The displacency she felt after moving to a different country was overwhelming at first.
3. In times of crisis, communities may experience a collective displacency that hinders their recovery.
4. His displacency during the transition period was evident in his reluctance to engage with new colleagues.
5. The novel explores themes of displacency through the eyes of its main character, who struggles to find her place.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/displacency>