

DISPLANT

Meaning: To displant means to remove or uproot something from its original place, often referring to plants or trees, particularly in the context of replacing or displacing them.

1. The invasive species began to displant native plants, disrupting the local ecosystem.
2. Efforts to displant the old trees were met with significant community opposition.
3. Scientists are studying how climate change may displant certain animal species from their habitats.
4. The government initiated a program to displant outdated technologies in favor of greener alternatives.
5. Her decision to displant the family heirlooms from their traditional location sparked a debate among relatives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/displant>