

DISPLEASURE

Meaning: Displeasure is a feeling of dissatisfaction or annoyance.

1. Her displeasure was evident as she frowned at the unexpected news.
2. The manager expressed his displeasure over the team's poor performance last quarter.
3. To her displeasure, the event was canceled at the last minute without explanation.
4. He tried to mask his displeasure, but the disappointment was clear in his eyes.
5. Displeasure spread through the crowd as the speaker addressed the controversial topic.
6. Her displeasure was evident when she received the news about the delay.
7. The manager expressed his displeasure at the team's lack of communication.
8. Despite her best efforts to hide it, his displeasure was clear from his expression.
9. The teacher's displeasure was palpable when several students failed to meet the deadline.
10. They could sense the displeasure in the crowd as the event started running late.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/displeasure>