

DISPLODE

Meaning: Displode: to burst outward or explode, often resulting in the scattering of debris.

1. The scientist was puzzled by the sudden decision to explode instead of implode during the experiment.
2. In the chaotic aftermath of the explosion, debris was scattered everywhere as the structure began to displode.
3. They watched in awe as the fireworks displode in vibrant colors against the night sky.
4. During the demonstration, the device was designed to safely displode, creating a visual spectacle without harm.
5. As tensions rose, the negotiations threatened to displode like a shaken soda can.
6. The scientists feared that the unstable compound might displode during the experiment.
7. As the pressure inside the container increased, it began to displode with a deafening roar.
8. In the action movie, the villain's hideout was set to displode at the stroke of midnight.
9. The engineer designed a fail-safe mechanism to prevent the reactor from disploding.
10. When the fireworks were improperly set up, one of them disploded unexpectedly during the show.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/displode>