

DISPOND

Meaning: Despond means to be in a state of low spirits or hopelessness, often due to disappointment or adversity.

1. The team's morale began to despond as they faced yet another setback in the competition.
2. Despite her efforts to remain positive, she couldn't help but feel despond after hearing the news.
3. His despond demeanor made it clear that he was struggling to cope with the recent changes in his life.
4. As the project deadline approached, a sense of despond settled over the entire group.
5. She tried to lift her friend's spirits, but the weight of despond was difficult to shake off.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispound>