

DISPONE

Meaning: To dispose of or get rid of something, particularly by selling or giving it away.

1. She decided to dispone of her old furniture before moving to a new apartment.
2. The manager will dispone of the surplus inventory by hosting a clearance sale.
3. He felt it was time to dispone of any negative thoughts that were holding him back.
4. The organization aims to dispone of outdated policies to improve efficiency.
5. After much deliberation, they chose to dispose of the unnecessary paperwork responsibly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispone>