

DISPOPE

Meaning: DISPOPE: to demonstrate the falsehood or invalidity of a belief, theory, or idea.

1. The scholar's work aimed to disprove the long-held theories surrounding ancient civilizations.
2. In her debate, she sought to disprove the common misconceptions about climate change.
3. To disprove his opponent's argument, he presented a series of compelling studies.
4. The experiment was designed to disprove the validity of the previously accepted hypothesis.
5. They needed strong evidence to disprove the allegations made against them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispoppe>