

DISPOSE

Meaning: To dispose means to get rid of something or to throw it away, especially in a proper or appropriate manner.

1. She decided to dispose of the old furniture instead of keeping it in storage.
2. It's important to properly dispose of hazardous waste to protect the environment.
3. After the event, volunteers helped to dispose of leftover food in a sustainable way.
4. He took a moment to dispose of his thoughts and focus on the task at hand.
5. The city implemented new regulations to ensure residents dispose of their trash responsibly.
6. She decided to dispose of the old furniture instead of trying to sell it.
7. It's important to dispose of hazardous waste properly to protect the environment.
8. After cleaning out the attic, we found it difficult to dispose of all the accumulated junk.
9. He chose to dispose of his anger by talking it out with a friend.
10. The city provides special bins to help residents dispose of recyclables more easily.
11. It is important to properly dispose of hazardous waste to protect the environment.
12. After the party, we need to dispose of all the leftover food responsibly.
13. She decided to dispose of her old clothes by donating them to charity.
14. The city has implemented a new program to help residents dispose of electronic waste.
15. He learned how to dispose of his paperwork securely to prevent identity theft.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dispose>